

R.N.B.C. 'DOG'

1942

The original unit was formed at Coulport House or Inverary about April - May 1942.

Took part in Dieppe raid on which the majority of personnel were casualties. Not reformed in U.K. but as result of C.C.O's decision about July 1943 name Dog was allocated to unit formerly known as No.5 or SAUNDERS B. P. (The other Saunders Party became N.B.C. Zebra by same signal, but it was absorbed into Dog at some date after Salerno in September 1943. Zebra was maintained as a separate entity for a brief period only, duration unknown.)

1943

Participated in Salerno landing, afterwards returning to SAUNDERS, where it remained until going to Corsica to relieve Able in June 1944. After periods in Naples and Messina the unit returned to U.K. in February 1945, reaching ARMADILLO on 29th March, where it was disbanded about the end of April or beginning of May 1945.
